

Andrew Sukawaty appointed Non-executive Director

Wireless Infrastructure Group is delighted to announce that Andrew Sukawaty has been appointed a non-executive Director.

Andrew ("Andy") Sukawaty has spent 30 years in the telecommunications industry and has been involved in the wireless sector since its inception. In 1990 Andy became COO of One to One (now T Mobile UK) where he launched the business. In 1993 he became CEO of NTL (now Arqiva) and in 1996 he was appointed CEO & President of Sprint PCS.

Andy is currently Chairman and CEO of Inmarsat, the world's leading mobile satellite services provider and Chairman of Xyratex. He has held a range of non-executive positions including Deputy Chairman of O2.

Bryan Doak appointed Finance Director

WIG is also pleased to announce the appointment of Bryan Doak as Finance Director.

Bryan joined the group from Damovo, the communications technology group, where he spent six years as Group Financial Controller. Prior to Damovo, Bryan set up the UK finance function of Hewitt Associates and spent six years at Accenture leading the implementation of outsourcing contracts. Bryan is a Chartered Accountant and a graduate of Glasgow University.

17 March 2008